

Newark Association, N.J.

1. / REFERENCE
NEWARK BRANCH

NOV 52

JYAC

WHAT IT IS

JEWISH YOUNG ADULT COUNCIL OF ESSEX COUNTY
652 High Street Newark, New Jersey

JEWISH YOUNG ADULT COUNCIL

OF

ESSEX COUNTY

WHAT IT IS.....The Jewish Young Adult Council is the co-ordinating and planning body of Jewish Young Adult Organizations in Essex County.

WHAT ITS PURPOSES ARE.....The Council's purposes are to:

1. Provide for a voice for the young adults of the Jewish Community of Essex County.
2. Aid independent Jewish young adult groups in the development of their programs and activities.
3. Assume responsibility for cooperating in fund-raising appeals made within the framework of the Jewish Community Council of Essex County.
4. Coordinate these activities of Jewish young adult groups voluntarily agreed upon by the affiliated groups.
5. Stimulate a spirit of Brotherhood by participating in inter-cultural, inter-group, and inter-faith programs.
6. Aid and support all worthwhile Jewish and general communal organizations and activities.
7. Develop intelligent and effective understanding of Jewish problems and interests.

HOW THE JYAC OPERATESThe Jewish Young Adult Council seeks to achieve its purposes through:

- regular meetings of the House of Delegates made up of representatives from the member organizations.
- an Executive Committee elected to carry out the work of the Council between meetings of the House of Delegates.
- working committees: including Program, Community Service, Publications, Publicity, Membership, and Fund Raising Committees.
- its newspaper, the "Young Adult," which provides ideas for member organizations, news of current activities in Essex County, program suggestions and latest information about the Jewish Young Adult Council.
- its publications, including program aids, minutes, special articles, and reports on programs.
- its relationships with the National Jewish Youth Conference, the permanent nation-wide body representing more than 300 councils and 10 national Jewish youth organizations.
- correspondence, visits and consultation with constituent groups by the officers and advisor of the Jewish Young Adult Council.

! You may secure program assistance, information !
! about Young Adult organizations and Young Adult !
! activities by contacting the JYAC at the Newark !
! Jewish Center, 652 High St., Newark, MA. 3-4462. !

WHAT JYAC HAS ACCOMPLISHEDThe JYAC sponsors a Jewish Youth Week celebration.

The JYAC publishes a directory of Jewish Young Adult groups in Essex County, which describes purposes, memberships, and officers of the organizations.

The JYAC has an Annual Week-end Conference so that Jewish Young Adults from Essex County can get together.

The JYAC gives young adults a voice in policy making and program planning of adult community through its representation on the Board of Directors and committees of the Jewish Community Center of Essex County, Joint Council for Civil Rights, Essex County Inter-Group Council, Community Chest, and the United Jewish Appeal.

The JYAC was active in securing the passage of the Freeman Civil Rights Law.

The JYAC sponsors an annual "Program Round-up" for Chairmen and Program Chairmen of member organizations.

The JYAC has made progress in bringing together youth leaders from social, religious and cultural backgrounds.

OFFICERS OF JYAC - 1951-1952

President.....	Barnett Mitzman
Exec. Vice-Pres.....	Sydell Oksman
Vice-Pres.....	Seldon Kruger
Secretary.....	Arlene Mintz
Treasurer.....	Fred Hamburger
Committee Chairmen: Reba Rosenhaft, Bernice Cohen, Diane Levin, Art Rivel, Maxine Rockoff, Esther Epstein, Larry Maisel, Martin S. Fox, Seldon Kruger	